

House Resolution No. 966

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize an outstanding Missouri business that has played an integral role in the vibrant economy of its community; and

Whereas, Wells Bank of Platte City has been chosen as the recipient of the 2007 Business of the Year award, a most impressive accolade bestowed upon it by the Platte City Area Chamber of Commerce and Economic Development Council on February 2, 2008; and

Whereas, the William C. Wells family started the Wells Banking Company in 1887 and was later chartered into Wells Bank of Platte City; and

Whereas, a locally owned and locally managed community bank that has been at the same location since its founding, Wells Bank of Platte City provides quality service beyond what is traditionally expected; and

Whereas, Wells Bank of Platte City places top priority on personalized attention to account relationships and is committed to using whatever technology is available in order to meet its customer's needs; and

Whereas, dedicated to serving the neighbors and the community in a courteous and professional manner, Wells Bank of Platte City will never forget that the most important part of banking is people serving people:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Wells Bank of Platte City for its selection to receive the 2007 Business of the Year award and in further wishing it continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Wells Bank of Platte City.
